I will spare you the introductory paragraph that attempts eloquence. Let’s get right to the point. In NACDS’ view, 2017 could be one of the most pivotal years in health care policy and in pharmacy patient care. NACDS already is advocating and engaging members to advocate for pharmacy in this unprecedented environment; that vital work will not end and under way.

The overarching goal remains the same. It is rooted in the truth that the pharmacy profession serves as the face of neighborhood health care, with the people of pharmacy improving and saving lives every day. Therefore, NACDS wags an aggressive aggressive offense to create pro-patient and pro-pharmacy opportunities to enhance the accessibility, quality and affordability of health care in this unprecedented environment; that vital work will not end and under way.
